Appendicitis—Notes.

Mrs. Daniel McCormick, Mrs. Jeremlah Haley and son Frank, Mrs. F. J. Murtha and William H. Lynch returned on Tuesday afternoon after attending the funeral of their cousin, Philip P. Smith, in Cohoes, N. Y.

The Cohoes Evening Disputch of The Cohoes Evening Dispatch of the funeral:

The funeral of Philip P. Smith was held this morning and was one of the largest funerals held in this city in some time, a large number of friends gathering to pay their last respects to the beloved friend and highly respected citizen. The funeral was held from the late residence, 154 Mohawk street, at 9 o'clock, and at 9.30 o'clock from St. Bernard's church. At the church a Berhard's church. At the church a emn high mass of requiem was celeated. Rev. T. S. Keveny, pastor of Bernard's church, was celebrant; v. M. C. Gavin, pastor of St. Agnes church, deacon; Rev. Fr. Barrett of Salem. N. Y., sub-deacon, and Rev. Daniel J. McCarthy of St. Bernard's

Daniel J. McCarthy of St. Bernard's church, master of ceremonies.

Among the other clergymen present were Rev. John Talbot Smith of Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., a brother of the deceased, Rev. Francis A. Roche of St. Bernard's church, Rt. Rev. Mgr. C. J. Shea of St. Joseph's church, Green Island, Rev. P. J. Brady and Rev. M. J. McCaffrey of St. Patrick's church, Rev. Lawrence B. Martin of St. Mary's Albany, and Rev. Valentine Gierlacki of St. Michael's Polish Catholic church.

The eulogy, which paid a high tribute to the life and character of the dethe life and character of the de-eased, was preached by Rev. Fr. bearers were intimat several public officers. He was for 12 years democratic alderman from the First ward and later was excise com-missioner, being appointed by Mayor Garside. He was the first secretary of the Business Men's association, being lected to that office when the association was first organized. Mr. Smith tion was first organized. Mr. Smith was a member of the congregation of St. Bernard's church and the Holy Name society connected with the church. Mr. Smith was of a cheary disposition and he took much interest in local social and political affairs, contributing by word and deed to the promotion of the city's best interest. The affection which he displayed for his family was generally commended. his family was generally commended, and there is a general appreciation of the fact that this community has lost one of its most valued members by his death, and his wife and children have lost a most dutiful husband and an indulgent and loving father.

SUIT WILL BE CONTESTED Gilbert Transportation Company Stock holders Decide on Action.

A second meeting of the stockhold ers of the Gilbert Transportation company was held Monday afternoon at Hartford. As at the other meetings, Director Williams presided and Director Whittlesey was secretary.
Of the 436 stockholders of the com any, there were present between 50 and 60 holders of the stock, with responses by letter from other stockholders. The sentiment expressed by these stockholders was that in case a suit is brought by Receiver Butter-worth for payment on stock not previously paid for at par, as he contends, legal talent should be engaged to contest the action test the action.

Ex-Congressman Sperry and former Attorney General Pheips, who at the request of several large stockholders had made an investigation of the company's affairs, explained the condition so far as they had been able to learn it, and the law bearing on the demand made by the receiver.

The stockholders fully discussed the matter and it was finally agreed that a small assessment should be request-ed from each of the 436 stockholders for the expense of court proceedings. matter and report at another meeting.

Witness Failed to Come Until Sent for in Common Pleas Court.

Paty Schwartz of New London was impressed Monday with the necessity of respecting a summons to court. He failed to respond to an order to appear in the court of common pleas and was ordered to pay the officer's fee for getting him and bringing him

Schwartz was wanted as a witness in the case of the Arnold Rudd Co. vs. Alfred L. Farley & Co., to testify to the value of certain grain, as he is in the business as head of P. Schwartz & Co. Judge Burnham of Jewett City is hearing the case, as Judge Waller is disqualified. When Schwartz failed to appear Judge Burnham despatched a deputy sheriff to get him. Schwartz was given a severe reprimand and was then directed to pay the deputy's fee

The arguments in the case were made Monday and Judge Burnham took the papers

ROCK NOOK CHILDREN Proofs of Kindly Sympathy During Past Three Months Acknowledged.

Can be Relieved—There Are Now 743 Patients There.

There are at the present time 743 patients at the Norwich state hospital, and this is 160 more than the capacity of the institution, so that no more are being taken except as vacancies occur. Within ten days it is expected that south ward C for men will be completed, and that the other buildings will be quickly made ready. This will give accommodations for 250 more patients.

Kindly sympathy, which are gratefully acknowledged.

The Loyal Circle, Hope Circle and Grace Circle of the King's Daughters, the Woman's Gulld of Grace church, and the Dorcas society of the First church have given valuable assistance in making dresses, skirts, rompers and waists.
